

2017 Fall Afterschool Claire Lilienthal

Meet Every Tuesdays Sept.26.17 - Jan.09.18

ENJOY YOUR KOREAN LEARNING WITH THE AFTER-SCHOOL ART PROGRAM PROVIDED BY KCI

APPLY NOW TILL SEPT 26, 2017

Come join us for After School weekly art classes, taught by our experienced art teacher Rea Shin!

The KCI-SF (Korean Center, Inc of San Francisco) art program offers students time to experience art, space to express themselves creatively, and the opportunity to enjoy using a wide range of media in a Korean/English bilingual environment.

Each session will involve an art project inspired by traditional Korean holidays through all seasons of the year, allowing students to explore associated colors, shapes, and patterns.

About the Instructor Rea Shin was born in South Korea and is an abstract artist who lives and works in San Francisco. She started her abstract art paintings after obtaining her BA in Fine Arts from the Academy of Art University in San Francisco. She has been exhibiting her paintings at art galleries in San Francisco and Healdsburg, CA and other Bay area locations. She has been teaching art at WeLearn Learning Center in San Francisco as well as at Alamo Elementary School in San Francisco for the past several years. She paints with an inspiration from everyday objects. Her paintings often express emotions of life through bold and vivid color contrasts by layering, texturing and scraping oil paints with mixed media. Rea believes that arts can be the most amazing tool to effectively express and communicate our feelings and emotions as well as to develop a creative mind

About KCI a not-for-profit organization, was founded in 1974 and has been serving the communities in the San Francisco Bay Area by offering educational services that enhances understanding intercultural communication between Korean communities and others in Bay area.
